What you should do in the event of an accident or theft

Naturally, we hope you don't have an accident, but if you do, you may find the following advice useful:

- 1) People are more important than property and your first priority should be to check whether anybody is injured and attend to them, seeking medical help if necessary.
- 2) Always stop if you are involved in an accident and exchange the following information:
 - Names and addresses (including those of any eye witnesses)
 - Insurance companies and addresses (including policy numbers if known)
 - Vehicle registration numbers.
- 3) Do not admit you are to blame or offer any payment.
- 4) Draw a diagram of the accident scene. This should include the position of the vehicles before, and after the accident, the road layout, any obstructions to your or other road users' vision, the position of any witnesses and anything else which could be relevant to the cause of the accident e.g. speeds and distances involved, or the weather conditions.
- 5) IF ANYONE IS INJURED you must produce your Motor Insurance Certificate to the police or to anyone who has reasonable grounds for requiring it. If you can't do this at the scene of the accident you must produce it and report the accident to the police within 24 hours.
- 6) In an Emergency, phone our Emergency Helpline.
- 7) In other circumstances, phone our Claims Incident Control Unit as soon as possible after an accident.
- 8) If you receive any letters or documents about the accident, please send them unanswered to us.
- 9) In the event of theft of your car, you must report the incident to the Police as soon as possible and phone ourselves.

Our Claims Service Helpline will provide advice and assistance to help you get your car back on the road as quickly as possible and repaired to your complete satisfaction where you have chosen Comprehensive cover. To ensure this happens we have a network of carefully chosen Priority Repairers spread throughout the country.

Our network of Priority Repairers are authorised to start work on your car as soon as they receive it. Our Motor Engineers ensure that they continue to meet the required performance levels within preagreed costs.

How to use the RSA windscreen replacement service

A shattered windscreen can be both inconvenient and expensive to replace. Therefore we have negotiated a priority service with our glass replacement service provider for customers who have chosen COMPREHENSIVE cover. A glass replacement service provider will repair or replace your windscreen anywhere in the country, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

In the event of an emergency simply call them on the FREEPHONE number below and they will be on their way within minutes.

If your windscreen needs replacing you will be responsible for the windscreen excess shown in the schedule and VAT (if you are registered), all other costs will be charged direct to us. If the windscreen can be repaired the excess is waived and you will only be responsible for VAT (if you are registered).

Whether your windscreen is replaced or repaired it will not affect your hard-earned No Claim Discount.

Whether at the roadside or with our glass replacement service provider, please remember to produce your current Motor Insurance Certificate.

The use of any other windscreen supplier will not affect your right to claim.

If you have third party fire & theft or third party cover, you can still use the 24 hour priority glass replacement service provided but you will have to pay the full cost of any glass replacement. However, as a RSA customer you will be entitled to discounted prices. Simply show your RSA Certificate to obtain your discount.

How do you make your car more secure

With vehicle crime escalating, even in more rural areas, it has become increasingly important to protect your vehicle.

We have therefore compiled a list of simple measures which you can take to reduce the risk of vehicle crime:

- Always lock your car doors and shut the windows whenever you leave your car, even if it is on your own driveway or in your garage. Don't forget to lock your garage as well. A few seconds is all it takes for a thief to steal your car.
- Always take care where you park. If you have a garage at home – use it. When you are away from home try to use secure car parks. If this isn't possible, avoid leaving it in back streets or quiet areas because these are ideal working conditions for a thief. If you have to leave your car outside at night always try and park it in a well lit and busy area.
- Don't leave items in view when you leave your car unattended. Always keep them away out of sight e.g. in a glove compartment or under a seat. Even when you are in the car consider these precautions as it has been known for thieves to reach through passenger windows to steal items when the car is stationary. If you have a removable radio don't forget to take it with you when you leave your vehicle. If the radio is permanently fixed consider getting it security coded.
- Don't forget to remove all keys from your vehicle. Never leave your key in the ignition when the car is unoccupied e.g. at a petrol station, even if it is only for a few seconds.
- Many vehicles are stolen after the keys have been stolen. Avoid leaving your jacket or coat unattended with your keys in the pocket, even for a few seconds. Avoid leaving your keys in your business premises or in the home where they could easily be seen by an intruder or where they could be stolen through your letterbox.
- Consider fitting even the most basic physical security measures e.g. a steering wheel or handbrake locking device will deter thieves. Better still consider fitting an engine immobilisation system, alarm system or both.

While the above won't necessarily prevent theft, it will reduce the chance of it happening to you.

What to do if you are taking your car abroad

Your Business Car policy provides you with the same level of cover that you enjoy in the British Isles whilst visiting the following destinations:

All EU countries and in Liechtenstein, Norway, Croatia, Iceland, Switzerland and Andorra.

A charge will be made if you take your vehicle to any other countries not specified above - please contact ourselves in these instances.

You should take with you your Certificate of Insurance, copy of your Policy and current Schedule. In addition you should contact ourselves to request a Guidance When Driving Abroad leaflet and a European Accident statement.

If you have an accident while abroad you can contact us from outside the UK on the following telephone number +44 (0) 870 600 2900 (24 Hours)

What to do if...

You change your car

If you change your car please notify ourselves and we'll advise of any change of premium and send an updated policy schedule. We'll need to know the make, model, engine type, value, registration number, age and cubic capacity of your new car, and also if you've registered the car in another name.

You want to change drivers

Your policy and certificate detail who you have named to drive your car. If you wish to change the names, please contact ourselves to enable us to make the necessary alteration.

You change your business address

Please contact ourselves with full details of your new address including the business postcode as soon as you know them, together with any change in your garaging arrangements. We will then be able to advise you of any change in premium and update your policy.

Your health changes

To be eligible for this policy all drivers suffering from any disability/infirmity requiring notification to the DVLA must notify the DVLA and be granted a licence to drive.

Other circumstances change

As a condition of the policy, you should notify us of any material changes which could influence our assessment of risk. Examples of a material change would be if you or any other named driver have been convicted of a motoring offence, a change in the use of your car, or any modification to the car itself that may affect its performance. This is not an exhaustive list and should you be in any doubt please contact ourselves.

Other useful points

How does no claim discount work

You earn No Claim Discount for each year of claim free driving, increasing annually up to a maximum of 5 years or more, which, gives you our maximum discount from your base premium. A single at-fault claim during a one year period of insurance (or not at-fault claim if you are unable to recover your uninsured losses) reduces your 5 years No Claim Discount to 3 years and 2 at-fault claims will reduce your Discount to 1 year. See page 25 of this policy for full details.

However, if you have chosen to take NO CLAIM DISCOUNT PROTECTION which is available for Comprehensive cover then your hard earned discount (4 or more years) will not be affected unless you have more than 2 at-fault claims in 5 years. Windscreen breakage claims do not count.

What to do if you want to lay up your car

If you want to take your car off the road e.g. for repairs, then you should contact ourselves and we will recommend what course of action to take. It may be advisable to lay up your car on a temporary basis rather than cancel your policy.

Have you thought about Legal Assistance Plan?

Even the most experienced driver can be involved in an accident. Unfortunately accidents can be both costly and particularly frustrating if they are not your fault and even if you are blameless you could still be out of pocket for costs such as:

- Your policy excess
- Cost of car hire or alternative transport
- Loss of earnings
- Compensation for personal injury
- Temporary loss of use of your car and other inconvenience.

As a further service to our customers, we have arranged through our third party provider, a service which will make all reasonable efforts on your behalf to recover the above expenses following a motor accident which is not your fault. The legal costs involved in pursuing such a claim are covered up to the amounts shown in the schedule.

With Legal Assistance Plan, you also have immediate and confidential access by phone to a team of legal consultants who will give you advice and guidance on any motor-related legal matter.

If you have not taken advantage of this valuable option you may wish to include the Legal Assistance Plan at renewal time.

Have you thought about Breakdown cover?

Breakdown is an optional cover available for Business Car

Because everyone's driving needs are different, we offer four different levels of cover

Roadside Assistance

- If your vehicle cannot be repaired on the roadside, we will take your vehicle and all passengers to the nearest garage or one of our recommended repairers
- If you lock yourself out or lose your keys we will help you get back in.

Roadside Assistance and Homecall

This gives you protection both on the road and right outside your house and includes all the benefits of Roadside Assistance plus emergency assistance, if you break down at home or within one mile of your home address.

Roadside Assistance, Recovery and European Assistance

- As well as the benefits of Roadside Assistance, we will take your vehicle home, to a garage or one of our recommended repairers or to your destination
- You can choose to continue your journey by hire vehicle
- If your vehicle needs to be garaged overnight, we will arrange for emergency overnight accommodation for you and your passengers
- All of the above benefits apply if you are driving abroad.

Roadside Assistance, Recovery, Homecall and European Assistance

This is our optimum level of cover which combines all of the above levels. This offers you complete worry-free protection wherever you are driving in the UK and abroad.

If you have not already taken advantage of this valuable option, you may wish to include it at renewal time.

Notification of claims

The Insured Person shall provide Us with full details of every Event, as soon as reasonably possible and within 180 days of the Event.

The Insured Person must contact the Company or Us.

We will contact the Insured Person at the most recent address provided to Us.

Consent

We shall have no liability under this Section unless until the Company has provided written consent of the Claim to the Insured Person. Consent will be given if the Insured Person can satisfy Us that:

- A) We have all the information that We need: and
- B) the Insured Person has correctly identified the third party: and
- C) it is reasonable for the Insured Person to pursue or defend their legal rights: and
- D) the Insured Person has a reasonable chance of success.

The decision to grant consent will take into account the opinion of the Insured Person's legal representative if any.

The Insured Person must cooperate fully in the pursuit of the Claim including any Legal Proceedings.

If a false Claim is made in any way, the Insured Person will not be entitled to any benefit under this Section of the policy for that Claim or for any other Claim which arises from the same Event.

Withdrawal of consent by the Company

We may withdraw consent of the claim if:

- A) We consider that reasonable prospects of success no longer exist. However if the Insured Person decides to commence or continue a Claim for which We have denied support on the grounds of consent C) and D) above and is successful the Company will pay Legal Expenses as if We had given our consent in the first instance; or
- B) the Insured Person acts wrongfully or unreasonably in dealing with anything to do with the Claim; or
- C) the Legal Representative stops dealing with the Claim for any reason: or
- D) the Insured Person becomes insolvent and is unlikely to receive and keep any worthwhile personal benefit by continuing with the action, even if it is successful.

provided always that the Company shall remain liable for such Legal Expenses including Opponent's Costs as have been incurred up to the date of such withdrawal of consent.

Withdrawal by the Insured Person

If for any reason, the Insured Person withdraws from the Claim or stops the action without Our specific consent, the Insured Person must pay all Legal Expenses and Opponent' Costs incurred up to the date of such withdrawal including which the Company could reasonably consider obliged to pay as a consequence of such withdrawal.

Mitigation of Loss

The Insured Person must take all reasonable measures to avoid or minimise the risk or likelihood and the cost of Claims. This includes but is not limited to the insured and any agent or Legal Representative of the insured complying with any pre-action costs or other protocol that applies to any Claim or Legal Proceedings or taxation proceedings which form the basis of a Claim under this Section of the policy.

Arbitration

Any dispute between an Insured Person and the Company or Us in respect of this Section of the policy shall be referred to a single arbitrator who shall be either a solicitor or barrister agreed upon by both parties or failing agreement one who is nominated by the President of the appropriate Law Society or by the Bar Council or appropriate professional body within the Territorial Limits. All costs of the arbitration shall be met in full by the party against whom the decision is made. If the decision is not clearly made against either party the arbitrator shall have the power to apportion costs. If the decision is made in favour of the Company the Insured Person's costs shall not be recoverable under this Section of the policy. This procedure does not prejudice any right of the Insured Person to have recourse to any other complaints procedure to which the Company subscribes or to the courts.

Conduct of Claim

1 Information

The Insured Person must provide Us, or the Legal Representative if any, as soon as is reasonably possible, all information, documents and assistance relating to the Claim.

We are entitled to obtain from the Insured Person's Legal Representative any information, document or advice relating to a Claim or Legal Proceedings whether or not privileged. On request the Insured Person will give any instructions necessary to ensure such access.

2 Nomination of the Legal Representative

Once an Insured Person has told Us that he/she wants to make a Claim, We will look into the matter.

We will attempt to achieve a fair settlement, using an external representative where We consider it necessary.

If it is necessary for the Insured Person to nominate a Legal Representative the Insured Person will be asked to provide the name and address of the nominee Alternatively, at the Insured Person's request, We may suggest a Legal Representative

We may refuse to accept such a nomination. The Insured Person may then nominate an alternative Legal Representative subject to our continued right of refusal. However any dispute arising from the nomination procedure shall be referred to Arbitration as stated in this Section.

In selecting the Legal Representative the Insured Person shall have regard to the common law duty to minimise the cost of any Claim or Legal Proceedings or taxation proceedings. In all cases the Legal Representative shall be appointed in the name of and on behalf of the Insured Person.

3 Offer of Settlement

The Insured Person must inform Us in writing as soon as an offer to settle an action or any offer of a payment into court is received.

The Insured Person must not discuss, accept or reject any offer without our prior written consent. If the Insured Person discusses, unreasonably withholds agreement or rejects an offer We reserve the right to withdraw Our support.

If the Insured Person accepts an offer and this limits the Legal Expenses We are able to recover or makes the Insured Person liable for Opponent's Costs We may refuse to pay the irrecoverable legal expenses and Opponent's Costs which arise.

4 Payment of legal expenses

The Insured Person must not without Our written consent enter into any agreement with the Legal Representative as to the payment of Legal Expenses. Our consent may be withdrawn at any time.

All bills relating to the Claim which the Insured Person receives from the Legal Representative should be forwarded to Us without delay.

Bills must be certified by the Insured Person to the effect that the charges have been properly incurred or tell the Legal Representative to have that bill and any demand for Opponent's Costs officially confirmed as being charged on the Standard Basis.

The provision of indemnity for any Legal Expenses does not imply that all Legal Expenses will be paid. If in doubt We should be consulted.

5 Recovery of Costs and Expenses

The Insured Person, through the Legal Representative if applicable, shall be responsible for the repayment to the Company of any award of costs in favour of the Insured Person or any costs agreed to be paid to the Insured Person as part of any settlement.

When the total amount of Legal Expenses incurred is within the Limit of Indemnity the Insured Person and the Company will share any Legal Expenses that are recovered according to the proportion paid.

Where the total cost of the legal action exceeds the Limit of Indemnity the Insured Person and the Company shall have priority over any other parties with an interest in any costs recovered. The Insured Person and Company shall share such recovery according to the proportion paid subject to the Company's right of recovery being restricted to the Limit of Indemnity.

If you make a claim which is false in any way, you will not be entitled to any benefit under this insurance for that claim or for any other claim you make which arises from the same event.
